A great party of gaity and happiness,

A freshman initiation when everyone's a mess,
Perhaps a program or a national assembly for all,
Or just a class, or a study hall.

Thanks to each of you for the picture memories born.

Students and teachers to make the camera well-worn,

Advertisements from businessmen to finance the annual,

All the people who make possible our grand old school.

Memories, recollections of things oft reminesced,

When in one's memory they are sometimes missed.

Imprinted forever within this book of blue,

Here they are---always to be kept by you.

Dedication

Because of his interest in us, his time spent for, sponsoring

or just to talk to us and his always friendly greeting, the "Wild-cat" Staff wish to dedicate this annual to Mr. Larry D. Henderson, fondly known as "Coach".

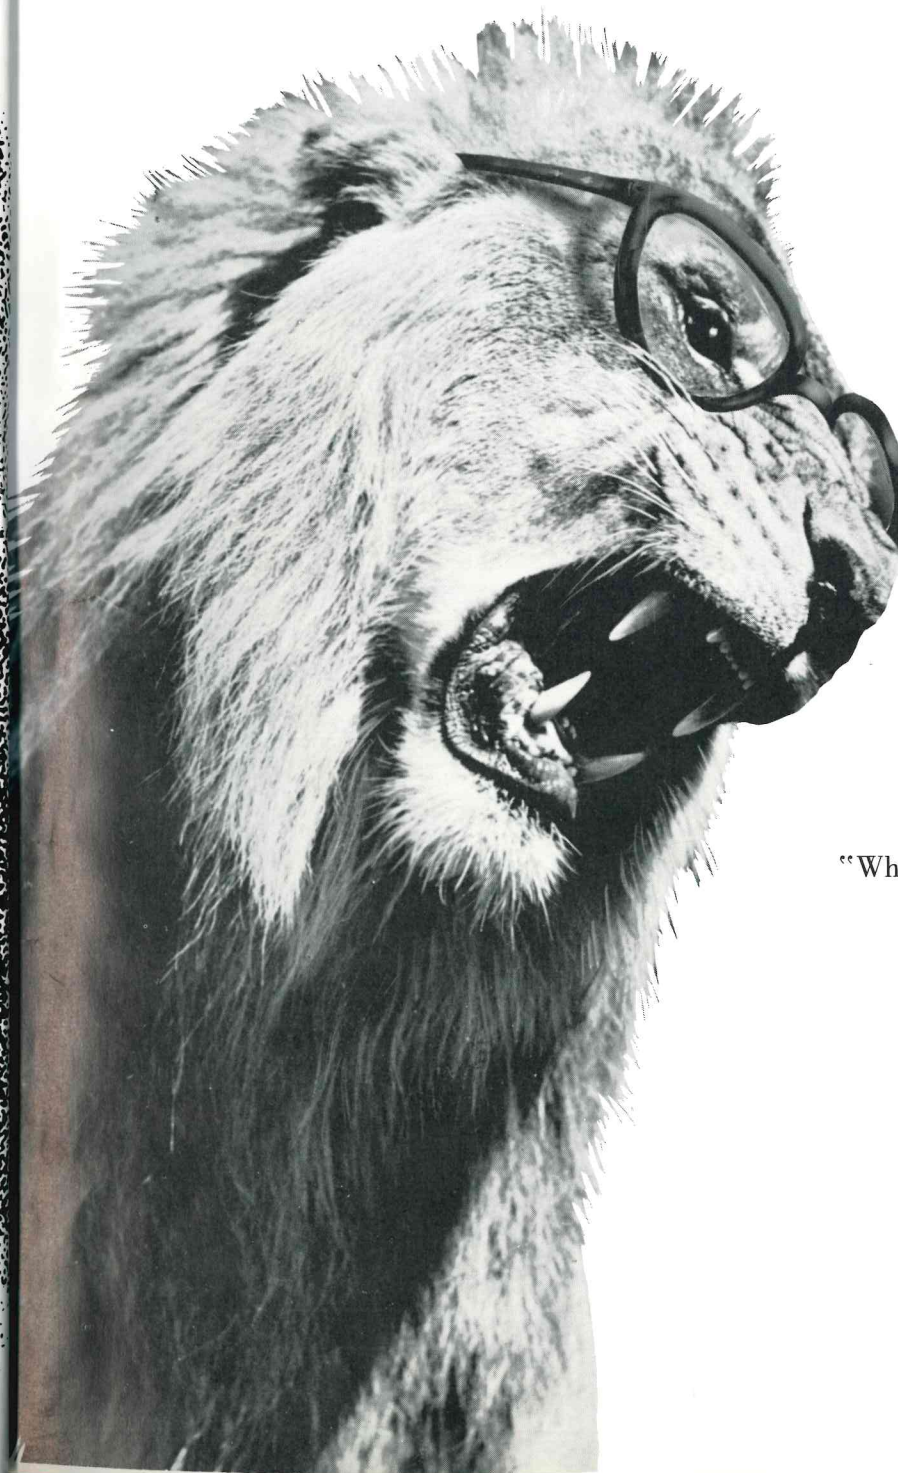

Administration

As you look through this yearbook, you will see pictures of some of the finest boys and girls in America. I am very fortunate to be the principal of such a fine school.

Now that I have given you the praise that you deserve, let me discuss with you a few of the important factors in the educational process. Whenever you find yourself forgetting these important "guideposts," watch out for trouble.

1. Don't ever assume that you have learned all there is to be learned--- As someone has said, "The more you know, the more you should realize how much you don't know."
2. The most important part of education is learning to know yourself. Learn how to live with yourself. Developing strong moral character is first in education. Don't neglect it's development.
3. Don't ever lose your respect for age and wisdom. Take time to respect your elders.
4. Be courteous. Follow the Golden Rule.
5. You must keep up with the fast educational trends of today. Try to "keep up" to the extent that you can help your children with their homework.

Last Will and Testament

I, Kathy Witt, being of sound mind and body, upon departing from this lowly school, through no choice of my own find it necessary to leave behind some of my treasured belongings.

To Carolyn I leave my dear old cheerleading shorts, they have much wear and tear left in them.

To Fred Morris I leave some of my extra meat.

To the cute little eighth grade I leave the next year. Just think guys--you will be BIG Freshmen!! (wow)

Various pieces of equipment sufficient for chicken raising I leave to Sharon Wimmer.

To Sandra Rogers I leave with her still doing her perfected Hollywood a go-go dance.

My ability for customizing a car I leave to a certain Freshman.

Last of all, to all the Freshmen who will try to be MIGHTY SOPHOMORES next year I leave my special ability to break-in new or old teachers that might need it.

So long, It's been a ball.

That's it, THAT'S ALL!!!

In death we merrily change from one life to another. So it is upon leaving this school, a small death.

I, Gaye Hansen, therefore have the task of writing a last will and testament, since I too am leaving this school.

I first will the jinx of the B-2 lab table in Biology to those who are fortunate enough to get it. Susan, Jann, and I have made so many discoveries on it that we should have gotten the Nobel prize for our efforts.

I leave my ability to go against the majority of the class to Dora Edwards. Stick up for your rights, Dora.

To Steven Miller I will my bad luck of getting a bottom locker every year.

To Leslie Peterson I leave the whole drum section, aren't you lucky!

Last, I will my brain full of muddled Greece, Socialism, congruent polygons, proportional segments, decomposers, and bacteria to Colleen Miller, in hopes that she can decipher it.

Now, I leave a portion of my love to all my fellow-students and teachers who have shared this school life with me.

I, Jack Foree, upon leaving??? would like to leave a few price-less (worthless) things behind to a few of the behind people.

To Fred Morris I leave Carolyn Westover (Ha, ha that's a joke Fred) and I also leave him a much needed membership in the American Cancer Society.

To Steve Bickford, I leave 1 broken test tube, 2 broken slides, 4 broken cover glasses, and a broken pipette. He can have my crum-my BO soaked basketball uniform, too (along with locker.)

To Carolyn I leave a pair of muddy tennies.

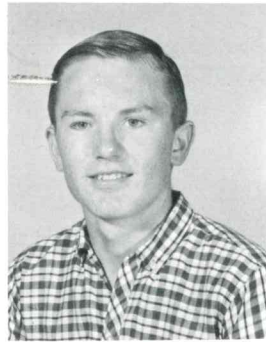

To Colleen I leave. (She'll appreciate it)

To Mr. Hansen I leave a feeling of security, since he knows he'll never have to teach us again.

To Mr. Hatch, I leave my Beach Boy album.

To Mr. Inman, I leave my dad's Beattle wig.

To Everyone else, I leave PEACE!!!!!!!

I, Davey Sorensen, on leaving this rat trap do hereby leave some of my worldly possessions to the unworldly people.
 To Carolyn I leave Fred (joke, ha ha) and an electric dishwasher.
 To Steve Bickford I leave my slingshot.
 To Fred I leave my basketball suit #30.
 To Danny, I leave some tape to pin up your pin-ups.
 To Colleen, I leave Mrs. Fambrough.
 To Dora, I leave my beloved name.
 To June, I leave Bob Boyse and Glen Jones.
 To Peggy, I leave my dirty, scratched, glasses that she always cleans.

To Bob Boyse, I leave a mountain to climb.
 To Sharon W, I leave a chicken dung feather.
 To Hodgie, I leave my goats milk and mushroom pancakes.
 To the rest I pray and hope that you can leave somewhere in your little ole hearts to let me go back to CALIFORNIA!!!

I, Mel Rogers, upon writing this last will and testament, do hereby state that I will still be here next year. Therefore I will have no last will and testament.
 But, I do want to let Hodgie have my bench-warming suit #32.
 I'll see you next year. (Good-bye all my good buddies going to Holbrook.)

Upon leaving this school where I received my first ten years of education it seems that I have gathered a few treasured possessions that I would like to leave behind to those who remain.

I leave my faithful locker #8 to any student who has the misfortune of getting it. It seems as if it doesn't work very well.

To Steven Hansen I would like to leave my ability to stay clear of all the girls. (he sure needs it).

I leave all the dirty equipment that I used in Biology for next years Sophomores.

To Roger I leave all my tests, papers, work sheets, and anything else that will help him to pass next year. It seems as if he is failing this year.

To the rest of the school that weren't lucky enough to get any of my prized possessions, I LEAVE!!!!!!!!!!

I, John C. Lubbers upon making my departure from this (sniff, sniff) dear old "Institution of Learning" and since this is my second to last will, I wish to distribute a few of my rather worthless possessions throughout the remaining unfortunates.

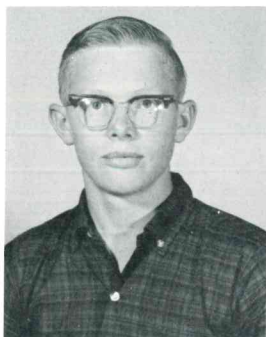

To begin with I would like to leave my brain with Mr. Hansen and the decomposers, but I might possibly need it.

To Mr. Hatch I leave a few less painful wakeup exercises.

To Mrs. Fambrough I leave the unanswered question, "Do red-heads have more fun?"

To Mr. Inman, I leave a piece of wig from our plays in hopes he can keep it warm next winter.

To Colleen, (alias "Chunga") I leave my dreams of banana boats.

To Glen, I, along with the rest of the class, leave to you America's favorite song, "Hey you get off my Hodgie wagon."

To Carolyn, I leave the smashed-up drivers education car, one seat belt, and a wise saying. "Safety belts do save lives."

To Fred, I leave my ability to confuse the score-keepers at ball games.

To Steven, I would like to leave my ability to be where all the trouble is.

To (Rev.) Stanley G. Morrill, I leave my epic sayings.

To Mr. Hawk, I leave my magic powers over the base drum.

To the Freshman Class, I leave you the name of the adolescent slob. Live up to it!!!

Last, but no least before I close the barred doors behind, in deepest sympathy, I leave!!!!!!!!!!

At the end of a wonderful year, the MIGHTY SOPHOMORES have been allowed to leave this heavenly haven (ward 7). Since we are not allowed to lift anything, we have to leave our priceless straight jackets etc. to the poor unfortunates who will take our place in this padded cell.

I, Roger Randall, upon leaving ward 7, am willing my possessions to the nuts taking my place.

I leave my B.O. soaked P.E. uniform to Fred.

I leave English and history to anyone who wants it.

All the good times I've had in biology I leave to Carolyn.

To Billy Duncan I leave my pin-ups.

To J.C.S. I leave one wrecked Drivers Education car (by Eva-Lynn). To the rest of the unfortunates who remain, I leave this advice, "Don't be too hard on MARV!!!!!!!!!!"

who can open it. (A dirty sock!!!!)

And so I leave, never to come back again!!!

I, Margaret Randall, upon leaving this broken down school would like to leave a few of my rotten possessions that I don't want in H.H.S.

My rottenest possession, which is my ability to get Mrs. Fambrough mad at me in 5 seconds flat, I leave to Sharon Wimmer.

I now would like to leave my rotten petri dishes that didn't get any results to Danny Foree, in hopes that he can cultivate some successful colonies of bacteria.

I leave John Lubbers and his stupid idiotic world history jokes to Mrs. Fambrough in hopes that she will enjoy him to the fullest extent. I'm leaving this even though it isn't one of my possessions!

As my most prized possession, I leave gym locker #15 to any fortunate soul who can open it. There's a prize inside for the person

I, Minnie Jane Porter, upon leaving some of the best years of J.C.S. behind me, I feel it a pleasure to will some of my treasures to some of my dear beloved friends.

To Carolyn, I leave my ability to go Christmas tree hunting in hopes that she might get frozen feet and get them rubbed by Mr. Hatch.

To Bickford, I leave those back seats in hopes that he may solve the problem of getting clobbered.

I leave my locker #11 to anyone that can get those pet rats out.

To Roger Randall I leave all my correct geometry papers in hopes that he might be able to pass this next year and join us again.

Three last words of advice, HAVE A BLAST!!

I, June Hunt, being of sound body, but I don't about the sound mind bit! do hereby leave a few of my prized possessions to the unfortunate students who have to stay here under lock and key.

First of all, to my beloved band-mate and P.E. mate, Colleen Miller, I leave the stage so that she can put on her interesting little shows.

To Carolyn W., I leave Dave S., since he's sure to be here next year anyway.

I leave to my dear friend, Glen Jones, his beloved Hodgy Wagon with a flat tire.

To David Alford I leave all my worn out skate boards.

I leave to Lome Hansen the trampoline, she gets such a big kick out of it.

To Sandra Rogers, (who has everything), I leave the GREAT memories of all the fun we had together on the basketball team and in P.E.

To my little sister Rhonda, I leave the hallowed halls of J.C.S. (Have Fun)

To everybody else, especially the Freshmen, I leave. (Yea!)

Now is the time for all mighty SOPHOMORES to bequeath to those poor unfortunate souls who must remain in this medieval hovel, their most prized possessions.

I, Jann Hunt, (a might SOPHOMORE) grieve at the idea of leaving my precious belongings to such piteous serfs.

So to Sharon Wimmer I leave all the feathers she may find.

To Sandra R., I leave a piece of bubble gum. (Don't say I never gave you anything.)

To that lowly serf, Peggy Miller, I leave all the little letters she may receive, and the title of MIGHTY SOPHOMORE.

To David Alford I leave all the sidewalks so he may go sidewalk surfing any time he wants to, I also leave Rhonda.

To any poor unfortunate Sophomore, I leave all the grueling classes and homework every night.

To Rhonda I leave all the dishes so she can do then alone. Have fun.

I think if we all leave a little of our height to Nyla B. she may be eight feet tall yet.

To Joe Witt, Kathy W. and I leave Joe's Shell. Work Hard!

To Claire S., Loma H., and Lyn S. I leave the trampoline.

To Jayne Randall, I leave all her curlers.

To all the rest of the serfs I leave the teachers, paddles, homework, and the chain gangs.

HAVE FUN, WORK HARD, AND DON'T BE TOO GOOD!!!!

I, Verleen, upon leaving (might not) this school will some things off.

To a dear cousin, Sandra, all the bad grades. Because she is so good in school I will give her a few bad grades.

To Jayne all of the time that she didn't have anything to do. because she said she needed some of it. (That isn't much time because is was all used up by studies.)

To Carolyn all the bad looks. She needs some because she is so cute.

To Colleen all the bad times with the teachers.

To Fred all the work that is not handed in, and all unfinished work.

To anyone that needs some Freshman and Sophomore books contact me.

Oh yes, to Danny, something that your sister left me. Look in your Yearbook to see what it is.

I sure hate to leave this school, but must go on sometime or not get anywhere.

I, Kelcey Webb (Norvile) upon leaving this undearly beloved--- "CENSORED." Do hereby state that I would like to will the following articles to the following people.

To Fred Morris I will my half used pack of weeds.

To Mel I will my loving memories of our GOOD times in Phoenix.

To Carolyn I leave the notes and memories of "good ole" Seminary days (when I was ever there).

To Dave I leave California, and all the women drivers and to all the women I leave Dave.

To everyone else that I've given a hard time I LEAVE (I hope.)

I, R.Q.M. (Richard Quentin Miller for short) being of no mind and half body, upon leaving this Mental Build-Up Organization, do hereby leave the following things behind.

To all the Freshmen, I leave the teachers (especially Mrs. Fambrough) to give them all the work that they gave us.

To anyone who loves the aroma of B.O., I leave my basketball and P.E. suits.

To Fred, I leave my ability to get the good things out of life in Biology.

To the Freshmen girls I leave all the Sophomore boys who will Last, but not least, I leave the hallowed halls of J.C.S. to the janitors.

Now, all fagged out, I stumble off to H.H.S. with this advice, DON'T BE LATE FOR SCHOOL UNLESS YOU HAVE A REASON!!!

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for final grades to be issued, it has become traditional for the elite to pass on to greater horizons and leave in their wake the less worthy, to grovel yet another year in ignorance.

And so, I, Susan Hubbard, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my last will and testament, (on the stipulation that I leave at all) to those who have no hope of escape.

To Kelcey, (who has no doubts about staying), I leave one 39¢ engagement ring.

To Sandy, I leave my superior brain cells, (all two of them), in hopes that the minute smattering of knowledge accumulated through the past 15 1/2 years might strengthen her mental powers. (Yuk, Yuk)

To Mr. Despain, I leave the road to Perkin's Flat. He can have it!

To some unlucky Freshman, I leave the jinx of table B. (You biology students will understand.)

To anyone who will take it, I leave the junk in the bottom of my old purse.

To the eighth grade, I leave the title of "Filthy little Freshmen." I've had my turn, and I'm sure this year's Frosh won't begrudge it to you.

To the little Freshmen, I leave the next year as the High and Mighty. I also leave them the eighth grade.

Last, but certainly not least, to my sister Patty, I leave, knowing that she'll be much happier without having me around to spy on her. (and vice versa)

I, Eva Lynn Despain, upon leaving this lyceum of the acquiring of mental cultivation, wish to leave to some of my fellowmen of learning some of my revered possessions.

Upon Stephen Bickford I bequeath my ability to love referees. (I'm sure you'll find this most beneficial.)

Reed Shelley receives my permission to use my favorite question. "Why?" At least once every class. This is to get you in good with the teachers, especially when they don't know why.

To Mr. Hatch I leave all geometry problems that I solved using the long way around.

I bestow Mr. Henderson with my memories of space flights at 5:00 A.M. and completely undented driver's education cars!

To Mr. Hansen I leave my thanks for the instilling of appreciation of ionic bonds, active immunities, auxins, sunflowers, and "Otis Spafford."

Since someone will need to replace me on the basketball team, I leave my little sister this graceful ability.

To Jayne Randall I will my place as the first in the morning to smile and say good morning. Use this with caution. People that are still half asleep don't see the good yet.

Sandra Rogers receives memories of basketball games, anonymous notes, history work sheets, private jokes (the numbered ones), and all the things we've shared I don't want you to forget.

The others of you that will still be acquiring mental cultivation, I leave my material possessions such as books (if you pay for them) papers, pencils, and to the first person to register lucky locker #1.

Also these last words, "A SMILE COSTS NOTHING!!!"

PRINCIPAL'S PRINCIPLES

Books, books, books, what is happening in the realm of books? We are told that our American youth are reading more books than ever before.

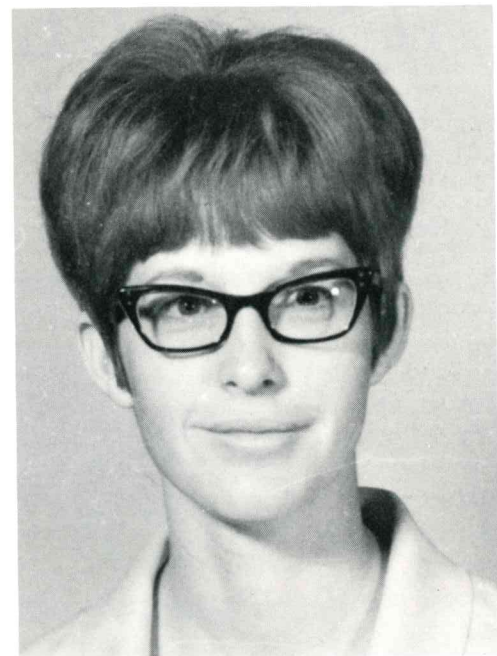

Did you ever stop to think about the number of books in our Joseph City School? Each room has a classroom selection that averages 300 books. Also, our high school library has about 2,176 books. Now think of each student in our school using on the average of five books each. Now consider our very important little P.T.A. library which circulates almost 800 books. Add these and you have approximately 6000 books in our school.

My message to you students is this: Never lose your respect for good books. Handle them with care. Books are your friends in life. Try to remember those books that have played an important part in your life. Reading good books will open many doors to adventure and learning for you.

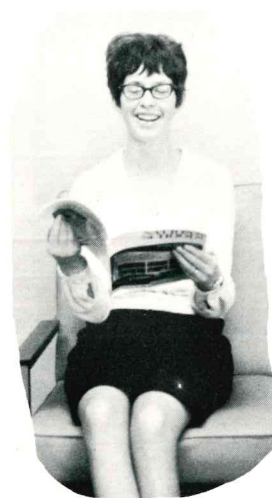

Daniel M. Inman, Principal

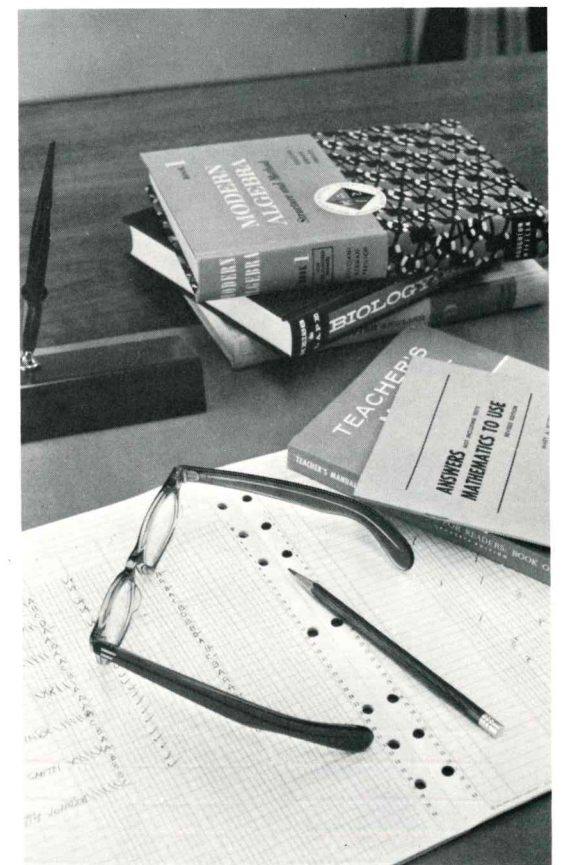

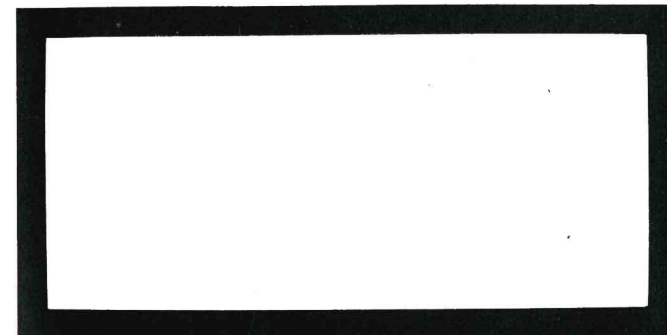

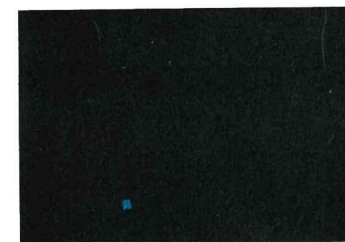

DEDICATION

Because of her interest in the students of JCS, her willingness to help in plays, sponsoring, and the school paper, her talents used to improve our scholastic standing, and her dedication to teach us "good old Modern English," we, the annual staff, wish to dedicate this issue of the WILDCAT, to MRS. JUDITH FAMBROUGH.

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

I, Ima Jean Stoneman, have had some pretty wonderful years at good old JCS. But, as I have to leave it now, I would like to leave some of those wonderful, silly, happy times, to those I'm leaving behind.

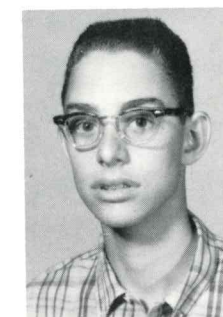

First, to Maylene and David, I leave my ability to hold hands in Driver's Ed.

To Max, the tenth grade class will leave Peggy.

To Marilyn, I leave my P.E. locker in hopes that she can still open it.

To Boyce, I will the name "Shortier."

To Steven Hansen, I leave a year's supply of candy. To the Sophomores of next year, I leave the name "The Mighty Sophomores." To the Freshmen of next year, I leave the name "The Lowly Frosh." I hope you all have as much fun here as I did. "Good Luck!!"

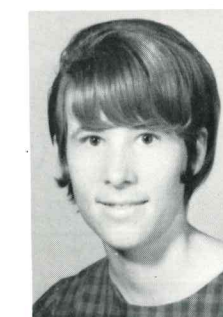

I, Frederick Gary Morris, being of sound mind and bod, upon leaving this Mental Institution of learning, do hereby leave the following items to the following people.

To Steven Hansen, I leave my ability to be first string center (sinner.) To Bill, I leave my Sophomore books, hoping that he may pay for them. To Maylene, I leave my long list of locker combinations, because she is always trying to get into someone's locker.

To Reed, I leave any girl of his choice, or one that will have him, to sit on the back seat of the bus. To Lesley, I leave my seat in Driver's Ed. in hopes that she doesn't drive Mr. Lira Mad. To Alford and Maylene, I leave the other back seat of the bus and to all the teachers and janitors, I LEAVE!

I, Dora E., being born of sound mind and uncoordinated bod, do hereby leave this beloved school.

To some of the unfortunate people who have to stay behind, I leave some of my most prized possessions.

To Diann, I leave my good study habits and my ability to flunk English.

To Max, I leave my ability to never get caught chewing gum.

To Maylene, I leave my ability to get smashed by an avalanche of falling books from the locker above me.

To Patty E., I leave my ability to never do anything right.

To Marilyn, I leave Gary S. in hopes she won't be too hard on him, and to the rest of you--I LEAVE!!!!!!!

I, D.G. (Colleen Miller), being of weak mind, weak brain, and weak bod (laugh, laugh), would like to leave some of my many treasures and abilities to the poor unfortunates who have to stay behind.

To Reed Shelley, I leave Joseph City (don't tear it apart), a good looking girl, and the back seat in the bus.

To David A., I leave Maylene and the other back seat in the bus. And since I won't be here next year, I leave Diann the job of watching them.

To Max, I leave his days filled with great expectations of another warning on his locker, his daily water fights, and the great hope that some day he may become janitor of these hallowed halls.

To Maylene, I leave my six page history worksheets, English sonnets----by Shakespeare, Petri dishes filled with agar, bacteria, broken slides, clabbered milk, and daily quizzes--and David.

To Mr. Larsen, I leave Nelson, and to Nelson, Mr. Larsen. Have fun.

And to Patty E., I leave the job of always keeping Jr. Birdman a legend in his own time. I also leave to Patty all the fond assemblies, (by the pep club) bus trips (coming back from Snowflake,) glopped peppermint sticks, the post office, her barbecued potato chips, the ability to never have any clean pants, the job of being the biggest spas in the school, and Davey.

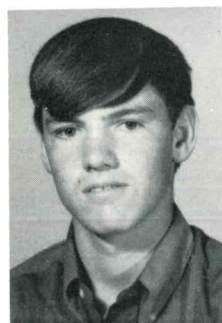

To Steven Hansen, I leave lucky locker #1.

To Catherine and Rhonda, I leave B-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-C-H.

And to anyone who feels left out I leave! (Don't cry too hard.) And these last words of advice: "Laugh it up!"

I, Glenn Jones LEAVE!!!!!!! (I hope!!!!!!)

I, Daniel Ward Foree the First, upon leaving this dearly beloved institution, so care to will the following items to the following people.

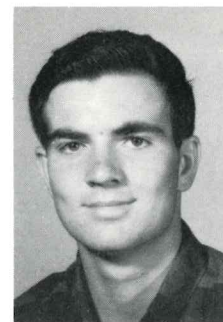

To David Eskey, I leave my surfer hair-do in hopes that he can find some place around here to surf.

To Reed S., I leave a back seat in the bus, in hopes that he can find a good use for it.

To the boys' P.E. Class, I leave the shower room, in which a bacteria population explosion is taking place.

To Bill Duncan, I leave number thirteen and number double zero basketball jerseys.

To all the girls, I leave fond memories of myself, as they look at my picture. And to the teachers . . . I LEAVE!!!!!!!

I, Stephen Bickford (Bick), upon leaving this old school, I would like to leave some of my most treasured possessions.

To Steven H. I leave my ability to foul as soon as I get in a game. To Max, I leave my broken test tubes and cover glasses. To Maylene, I leave D.A. and the back seat on the bus.

To Doug, I leave my ability to be where all the trouble is, etc. etc. To the Frosh, I leave the name MIGHTY SOPHOMORES.

I, Sharon Wimmer, now departing from this "dearly beloved" school, wish to bequeath some of my talents and treasured possessions to those who are staying behind.

First of all, to Rhonda, Patty, and Catherine, I leave my ability to forget my P.E. clothes for three weeks in a row about twice a year. To Max and David A., I leave what's left of my year's supply of bubblegum.

To Maylene, I leave our humpin' clarinet section, in hopes she can make it sound as lousy as it did when I was in it. To Diann, I leave my love for an argument on any subject, although she doesn't do so bad herself. I leave these memories in hopes they will be greatly appreciated and honored for as long as they last.

I, David Cummings, will my wig and good looks to Doug Miller.

I, Jayne Q. Randall, leave!!!!!!! (Well, somebody had to just leave--didn't they??)

I, Bob Boyse, am too selfish to leave anything. I need all my great talents for my future at H.H.S.

I, Peggy Miller, being of strong mind, brave soul, and talented bod (laugh that one up), while departing from this school, wish to leave the following things to the following people:

To Steven H., I leave one big unpaid debt and these words of advice: "Keep trying, one of these days you might get it back." To Virnell B., I leave one scratched up floor and the fun and bruises we got that way.

To Lesley, I leave my ability to always break something in biology. To David, I leave these words: "One of these days you're going to fall flat on your face, while trying to trip me."

To Patty E., I leave all the Jr. Birdmen she might find. To Reed, I leave my ability to never hand in a history worksheet.

To Nelson Y., I leave the memories of being band librarian. Keep up the good work, you may make a President yet. To Maylene, I leave one ugly cheerleading suit. To Max, I leave my most prized possession of all. My ability to play fairy, and fall down, or get bit by a dog. To my two little brothers, I leave, in hopes it will satisfy them. To the rest of you, I leave these words: "YOU'RE A PLENTY GREAT SCHOOL."

I, Sandra (Sandi) Rogers, leave?? these hallowed halls of learning, better known as JCS, with much regret and emotional disturbance (sob, sob!) But, so that the peons who must remain and continue the battle, may have memories of better, happier times, I, being of timid soul, uncoordinated bod, and pooped out molecules, wish to deposit a few CHERISHED items upon them.

First, to George, I leave--so he can quit spying on me--and me on him. To Rhonda and Catherine, I leave my ability to endure the sub-zero weather in going to Seminary. Nyla, Lynn, and Lesley receive my patience in waiting days for mail. Next, to Patty, I leave the heritage of Jr. Birdman. Also an extra shoelace. My memories of being the only girl in library go to Terri, Phyllis, Lynnette, and Susan and Pat. I'm sure they can handle them. To Bush and Boogie, I will make a supreme sacrifice and leave them my pleasant?? memories of working on the paper.

Max and Reed receive my official permission to be zombies and buffaloes. Next, I doth will my "Protected with ZEREX" sticker to anyone who can remove it from my locker. To Nelson, I leave the band, hoping he will make President next year. D.A., Doug, and Tommy get all the romantic phrases I learned while studying Shakespeare in hopes it will help them in their conquests. I wish to bequeath to Steven H. all my history worksheets, sonnets, unproven geometry problems, stinky lab work, carroded bread, and the title of "Chief Carpenter."

After much debate, I leave all my amassed eight years of musical knowledge (a C-scale) to Margaret Larsen. Last, but never least, I leave to those who feel slighted, my acting ability (don't push), and 1,000 Brownie points. And although you have heard me enough, this advice: BE GOOD--HAVE FUN

I, Dee Wilson, leave my guitar ability to Wayne and Loma. And my young love to Mary Kyle to remember forever

I, Carolyn Westover, of the school of Joseph City, of the age of fifteen, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under duress, menace, fraud or undue influence of any person whatever, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner following:

First, to Mr. Hatch and the Annual Staff of 1968, I leave the elegant Annual office (ha ha.) Second, I leave my ability to be a successful fairy to Steves H. and M. Third, I leave my twirling ability to Maylene, in hopes she can be a "good" major-ette next year. Fourth, I leave to Neil Kay and Billy D., my revered job as "top bottle washer" at Westover Dairy.

Fifth, I leave my ability to play "Sound of Music (Catastrophe)" on my sax to anyone who cares to drive Mr. Larsen mad. Sixth, I leave Diann P. and Lynette, so that they will not be loaded down with books on the way to Seminary.

And to the rest of you unfortunates, I leave JCS (take good care of her) and as I leave I depart with these words: "Thus saith Mr. Hatch."

I, Gloria Keams, leave my motto of "Silence is Golden," to Greg W. and Wayne M. They sure need it!!!

"WEE" SOPHOMORES

See, I told you Sharon's mouth was always open!!!

Are those weeds or flower's, Glenn???

So, there really is an Easter Bunny, huh, Dora??
